

DISCLAIMER & POSITION STATEMENT

This website is wholly funded, maintained & updated by Councillor Greg Barnes. No Council resources have been utilised nor ratepayer funds expended, in its construction, hosting or maintenance.

No sponsorship from any party is involved in the production or maintenance of this website. For some twenty years as an elected Council representative, Councillor Greg Barnes has strictly maintained his absolute independence from any politically aligned group, clique or party.

In that vein, the contents and comments expressed here are his alone and do not necessarily reflect the policies or procedures of the Bundaberg Regional Council or the opinions of other Councillors. Without limiting his ability to engage with or to professionally represent the regional community, he is committed to the ethics and standards promoted by the Office of the Independent Assessor and the Local Government Association of Queensland.